

William G. Chamberlain

MILITARY CUSTOMER SERVICE AWARD

The William G. Chamberlain Award honors “the Dean of Pratt & Whitney Field Service Representatives” who served P&W military and commercial customers from 1926 to 1961 and set the standard for customer service. The award, sponsored by P&W Military Engines recognizes an individual who provides exceptional service to military customers. The Chamberlain Award is open to all employees of Pratt & Whitney Military Engines.

Candidates for the William G. Chamberlain Military Customer Service Award must meet the following criteria:

- The candidate made a highly significant impact on customer satisfaction through individual performance.
- The candidate provided outstanding customer service, or was directly responsible for significant improvement in the customer support processes.
- The customer service provided was in direct support of operational products in the field.
- Nominees with major accomplishments during 2020 and first quarter 2021 will be considered for the award.

A hard copy of the nomination form is on the reverse side of this flyer.
