Vice President and Chief Financial Officer

Chris Peet is vice president of Finance and chief financial officer of Raytheon, an RTX business that specializes in integrated air and missile defense, advanced sensors, space-based systems, hypersonics and effectors. He leads a global team responsible for financial planning and reporting, accounting and controls, cost management, and supporting the execution of key business priorities.

Prior to his current role, Peet served as RTX's vice president of Financial Planning and Analysis, working across the corporation to monitor, report and advise senior management on operating results and trends. He has over 20 years of broad finance experience and has held roles of increasing responsibility at Sikorsky, Collins Aerospace, United Technologies Corporation, and RTX.

Peet holds both a bachelor's degree from the University of Connecticut School of Business and a master's degree in business administration and corporate finance from Indiana University's Kelley School of Business.
